Band descriptors (as defined in Council's Enterprise Agreement)

These descriptors help to classify the position:

Accountability and Extent of Authority

The position is directly held responsible for:

- May manage resources or provide input into the development of policy.
- Where prime responsibility is for resource management, the freedom to act is governed by clear objectives and/or budgets with a regular reporting mechanism to ensure adherence to goals and objectives. The effect of decisions and actions taken at this level is usually limited to the quality or cost of the programs and projects being managed.
- Where prime responsibility is to provide specialist advice to clients or to regulate clients, the freedom to act is subject to regulations and policies and regular supervision. The effect of decisions and actions taken on individual clients may be significant, but it is usually subject to appeal or review by more senior employees.
- Where primarily involved in policy development the work is usually of an investigative and analytical nature, with the freedom to act prescribed by a more senior position. The quality of the output can have a significant effect on the process of policy development.
- Have a formal input into policy development within their area of expertise and/or management.

Judgement and Decision-Making Skills

Judgement and decision-making is within the following scope:

- The nature of the work is usually specialised with methods, procedures and processes developed from theory or precedent. The work may involve improving and/or developing methods and techniques generally based on previous experience.
- Problem solving may involve the application of these techniques to new situations. Guidance and advice are usually available.

Specialist Knowledge and Skills

The position requires the following essential skills and knowledge:

- Typically, these positions require proficiency in the application of a theoretical or scientific discipline, including the underlying principles as distinct from the practices.

- All positions require an understanding of the long-term goals of the functional unit in which the position is placed and of the relevant policies of both the unit and the wider organisation.
- Where the primary function is to manage resources, require a familiarity with relevant budgeting techniques.

Management & Interpersonal skills

The essential position requirements include:

- These positions require skills in managing time, setting priorities, planning and organising one's own work and where appropriate that of other employees so as to achieve specific and set objectives in the most efficient way possible within the resources available and within a set timetable.
- Where management of employees is part of the job, the position requires an understanding of and an ability to implement personnel practices including those related to equal employment opportunity, occupational health and safety and employee's development.
- These positions require the ability to gain co-operation and assistance from clients, members of the public and other employees in the administration of defined activities and in the supervision of other employees.
- Be able to liaise with their counterparts in other organisations to discuss specialist matters and with other employees in other functions in their own organisation to resolve intra-organisational problems.
